Bloomsbury. 1 Cloth(s), 2012. hard. Book Condition: New. How different are we, really, from our pets? Not so very, as Domenica More Gordon would have it in this delightfully quirky, tail-wagging tale for readers up to 8 and dog lovers of all ages. Based on the charismatic miniature dogs she crafts in wool felt, the Scottish artist here follows the near-wordless adventures of Archie, a dapper retriever in a mackintosh and slacks, who one day receives a sewing machine in the mail from his aunt. Inspired to create an outfit for his own pet (another dog, surprisingly a personable little Westie), Archie's fashions instantly attract attention, and the phone starts ringing off the hook with requests. Soon Archie is making matching clothes for the pet dogs' owners as well but how far will this newfound popularity take him? 48.
