Not illustrated. 1874 Excerpt: .The members of Congress from California knew that their election was in part owing to this feeling, and that much was expected of them by their constituents, They failed not when the time arrived; but to one--A. A. Sargent--more than all others, is California indebted for the great work which now binds her to her Eastern sisters. But we are proceeding too fast, overlooking, but not forgetting, another name, none the less honored because the bearer lived not to behold the final completion of the work he initiated and so earnestly advocated. Theodore D. Judah, who now sleeps the sleep that knows no waking, but still his presence can be seen and felt in every mile of the grand road which his genius brought into being. His name is a household word in the West, for thousands new and appreciated the manly spirit and genial mind...
