Fear of Frying

By Jill Churchill

HarperCollins Publishers Inc. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Fear of Frying, Jill Churchill, Jill Churchill's smart and savvy amateur sleuth, Jane Jeffry, is a busy young suburban single mom with an amazing talent for solving the most mind-boggling of murders. Jane isn't exactly thrilled about heading off into the wilds of Wisconsin with her best friend Shelley to check out a summer camp for city kids. Shelley promises that their rustic "vacation" won't include climbing cliffs, crawling through swamps or challenging Mother Nature. But no one warned them about a lack of electricity, ranting from a local loony annoyed by the intrusion, and the natural wonder of a cookout in the cold rain. After the soggy supper, Jane and Shelley head back to the remote campsite in search of Jane's lost watch. That's when they discover someone has used a heavy-duty frying pan to cook up a most distasteful murder. The victim's head has been bashed in and the culinary weapon left lying on the ground - but not for long. By the time the crime is reported, the ingredients have mysteriously vanished, and the women's credibility is seriously questioned. And when the "corpse" shows up, alive and well,...
