Excerpt: . . . groups of rocks and admired the harmony of colours and lines, and often have I marvelled at the effect thus produced. One day when I called the attention of a lover of nature to these beauty spots in the garden, he said I have often come to this garden and have felt the charm of the place, but I have not particularly noticed how these rocks have been laid out. I see exquisite beauty in them now that you have called my attention to them. But I think that is a great compliment to the artist, for I have lived among the mountains so long and been inured to the beautiful way in which Nature works in her garden that I would have noticed them if they had not been in harmony with the charm of the place. Years of experience and a close...
