Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Rule of St. Augustin, and the Constitutions: For the Religious of the Congregation of Our Lady of Charity of the Good Shepherd of Angers But although this Rule is evidently holy, and, having been approved by the Church, ought to be considered above censure; and that the very name of its author ought to suffice to make it an object of veneration to all who bear the title of Christians; nevertheless, the foolish temerity of the children of this world, partly from affectation, partly through the spirit of criticism, has not failed to find in it subjects for frivolous objections. In order then that no one may disturb you on this subject, I will provide against their questions and foolish remarks, and at the same time throw a light upon some difficulties which might be an obstacle to you in the reading or practice of this Rule. The command of the glorious Father before all things, to love God and the neighbour, is not inserted in his Rule to make us think that he...
