Houghton Mifflin. 1 Cloth(s), 2010. hard. Book Condition: New. In this playful picture book for readers up to 7, inspired by the impossible drawings of Dutch artist M.C. Escher, young Mauk's master is building a grand palazzo. Then one day Mauk realizes the palazzo has become a topsy-turvy world where carpenters stand on their heads, painters dangle upside-down, and workers fall upstairs as they build. The creator of the Henry books (about a bear much like Henry David Thoreau), D.B. Johnson here offers beautifully crafted drawings in sepia tones to illuminate a text that runs along the bottom of the page. When you reach the end of the book, spin it around to read the rest of the story (with the pictures now "upside-down" and in reverse order) back to the first page. 32.
