When Ally realizes that the mysterious man sitting in front of her on the beach cafe where she now spends her afternoons after work, is reading her personal favorite book, she has no idea what life and fortune have reserved for her. For them. On that March afternoon, Ally Julliard, an uncommon free spirited financial marketer and Henry Bell, a profound creative film producer are united in a devoted experience of unforeseen truth and magnificent splendor that will live on forever. Several months later, on a night out with friends from old times, after Ally returns from the six month work mission in New York City that led to their abrupt breakup, the flame of love and desire between Ally and Henry relights. Ally longs to be with Henry one more time, but Henry s sorrow speaks louder than his genuine feelings. Henry finds himself unable to forgive Ally for choosing her career over their...
