Not illustrated. 1862 Excerpt: .put yourselves into this position, if you will dtlibl erately call down upon yourselves and your neighbors the curse of war, if you will compel j tho Executive power of the nation to put in l motion among you the terrible machinery of! the military service, remember when the blow l comes that you have compelled it to descend! upon you. Without your wrongful acts this j would not he. Your peaceful and prospective pursuits would go on as usual, and your connj try would be free from armed occupation, as it l was when you were loyal to the nation, as it is now wherever tho idea of secession has not cursed the country. There is one simple and easy remedy for this state of things, and that remedy is in your hands; it is a return to the old habits of trust, confidence, and...
