GAO assessed the Office of Personnel Management's (OPM) use of performance measures and standards to manage its service delivery to individuals seeking federal employment and federal employees, retirees, and dependents. GAO found that OPM: (1) used both qualitative and quantitative performance measures and standards; (2) had not identified all performance measures suggested by the Federal Productivity and Quality Improvement Program; (3) had not established a full range of performance measures and standards for efficiency or customer satisfaction; (4) had no measure or standards for health benefits claims processing; (5) did not routinely and systematically track performance in key areas; (6) did not ensure that adequate performance information reached top management; and (7) did not hold Senior Executive Service managers accountable for meeting performance goals. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.

This created book is wonderful. It is amongst the most amazing book I have got to go through. I am just effortlessly will get a enjoyment of looking at a created publication.

-- Prof. Jasper Murazik PhD

An exceptional ebook along with the typeface employed was intriguing to see. It really is simplistic but surprises within the fifty percent of the ebook. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.
