Not illustrated. 1908 Excerpt: .which are issued to the postmasters?--I now produce the form which is sent to postmasters when anybody is found to be sending these offensive post cards (handing in the same). It is to this effect: Mr. So-and-so should be seen by a discreet officer, and should be asked whether he admits writing and posting the cards. If he does, his attention should be drawn to the provisions of the Post Office (Protection) Act, 1884, Section 4, under which a person who sends a postal packet having thereon any words, marks or designs of an indecent, obscene or grossly offensive character is guilty of a misdemeanour, and is liable to be fined or imprisoned for 12 months, and he should be cautioned against repeating the offence. The officer who sees Mr. So-and-so should make a written statement of the interview. 65. With regard to the advertisements by foreign dealers in indecent matter, what have you to say?--In addition to sending the actual matter itself, the foreign dealers send out a great many advertisements of their wares. Mr. H. J. Wilson. 66. About this form you have just given us, may I ask, if it is pretty well traced to a particular person, is he always cautioned before any proceedings are taken?--Mostly, where he is not a dealer: where he is a private person we should caution him. Very often, as I have said before, it is someone who is labouring under some impression that he has been...
