Not illustrated. 1900 Excerpt: .overthrew the royal mail, but when peace came the Continental Congress established a new system, and put Franklin again in charge of the first United States mails. Postage stamps were not adopted by the Government until 1847, and until lately were printed by private contractors, but are now made at the Bureau of Engraving and Printing. The first building for this department was burned in 1836. The next one, occupied for many years until the end of the century, was the Corinthian structure on Seventh Street, next the Patent Office, now a part of the Department of the Interior. The present Post Office is a modern structure on the south side of Pennsylvania Avenue, between Eleventh and Twelfth streets, which contains both the General Department and the City Post Office. This building was authorized by Congress in 1890, and the site was Post Office. purchased in...
