First, there are some notable outward improvements; the grass is coming up rapidly on the big football field, but as it will not be ready for some months, we are playing on the side of the cricket-ground, where new goal-posts have been put up for the seniors. The remainder, intermediates and juniors, have a smaller field with the old goal-posts. Then there is a new building over the well, which houses two new pumps, worked by an electric motor. On the side next the cricket pitch is a verandah which will be used for scoring at cricket matches. But it is not only in the grounds that a great change will be noticed. The large room formerly called the playroom has been cleared out, and the walls lined with over 80 commodious lockers for the use of the boarders. Near the back gate a new barn has been built to accommodate our live stock, two cows and a horse. The school tuckshop is doing a roaring trade every day of the week except Sunday. The fitting out of the gymnasium is now practically complete; the parallel bars and vaulting-horse were put up in the holidays, while Mr. Harvey brought from England a horizontal bar, climbing ropes and rings, besides a complete outfit for the boxing and fencing classes which have already begun. Rifle racks take up one end wall, while the miniature range is in full use,...
