Their work is very exacting, and they must work long hours. The work can only be thoroughly learned in a feather curling establishment, and places are not easy to obtain. Glove Making: --The center of the love making industry in this country is centered around Gloverville, . Learn why nil women in that part of the country understood something of the business a few years ago and many of them were sufficiently expert to earn a good pay. The same is probably still true. There is need in love for women who can refit gloves. Some glove stores import expert help for their use, but a good new woman can readily learn all that is necessary, and a new woman who can refit gloves, can often command quite liberal pay. There are a number of flourishing glove stores in the country, owned and managed by women. Experience is necessary in learning the business, both as to its inner details, and its management. A part of it is a question of capital and management. It is a business in which a woman owner and manager, other things being equal, has a definite advantage over a man manager. The reason is: --Economics: A recognized business calling, and a really efficient housekeeper, whose circumstances will allow her to take on engagement, is long unemployed, it is usually because she...
