The President made a BnSaae, speech of thanks and welcome to them, and the force was photographed afterward. On the night of April 25th the Boer arsenal at Pretoria was blown Explosion up by a serious explosion in a magazine containing smokeless powder, pretoria across the street. The walls of the arsenal building were destroyed and Arsenal, the structures in the vicinity were a mass of flames. Ten workmen were killed and thirty-two were wounded, among whom was Herr Grunberg, the manager of the Begbie works. Thirteen of the occupants of the building were blown to pieces and fifty were injured. The Transvaal authorities believed the explosion to be the work of British or Uitlander incendiaries; and, as a result, another batch of British subjects, consisting of ten men, two hundred and sixty-five women and four hundred and twenty-nine children, were expelled from the Transvaal and were on their way to Delagoa Bay. On May 3d Lord Roberts captured Brandfort without much opposi-British tion, and the next day the British mounted infantry went to the Vet tioo River. The rest of the British force marched there on the 5th. On BrandMay 2d the Boers evacuated Thabanchu and marched northward. ThabanThe next day General French left Thabanchu, leaving General Rundle chu and in command. General Brabant soon reinforced General Rundle. Wmbul2, Lord Roberts marched to the Vet River with General Pole-Carew s Division on May 5th. The British mounted infantry flanked the Boer right...
